ATMIT AND ATTACKED AT A STATE OF THE STATE O

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

"The Field of the Cloth of Gold" at the

Last evening C. D. Hess & Co.'s burlesque company opened at the Cheanut in Brough's extravaganza of The Fie d of the Coh of Go'd. A large audience was in attendance, and the performance was a very decided success, and was warmly applauded throughout. Burlesque and pantomime, if well done, are about as attractive to the great mass of theatre-goers any entertainments that can presented; but the difficulty in the majorl'y of cases is to get together a sufficient number of artists who have a genuine talent for this style of performance, as there are few things more tiresome and stupid than a burleaque badly executed. The company that appeared last evening at the Chesnut is unusually strong in just the right sort of talent, and it is to the excellent acting and good singing that the success of the entertainment is to be attributed, n ore than to any great merit in the piece itself.

The subject is taken from the famous story of Henry the Eighth's visit to Francis the First of France, and the festivities which took place in the vailey of Audres in 1530. Most of those who were in attendance last evening probably had all the particulars of this grand affair well thrashed into them so many years ago that by this time they had forgotten all about it, and the subject cannot be ealled a propitious one for a miscellaueous American audience. John Brougham's Pocahontes and Co-umbus are more to the taste of our public, as The Field of the Cloth of Gold is to that of London. Leaving the subject out of the ques tion, however, the burlesque is not as good as Brougham's. Much of the dialogue is the worst kind of doggerel, and many of the puns are far from pungent. Some of the hits at the men and manners of the day, bowever, are good, and the jovial spirit of the whole affair succeeded in exciting a sympathetic feeling in the breasts of the audience.

The burlesque is well placed upon the stage as regards costumes, accessories, etc., although the somewhat dingy scenery of the Coesnut does not form as brilliant a setting as might be desired. All the leading artists are very good, indeed; and, for a wonder, they all know. how to sing as well as act. In these respects the company is unusually strong, for burlesque talent is peculiar, and not always possessed by otherwise good actors. The cast last evening was as follows:-"Henry VIII," Mr. J. G. Burnett; "Francis I," Mr. M. Fiske; "Earl Paraley," Mrs. J. A. Oates; "Sir Guy the Cripple," Mr. C. A. McManus; "Duke of Suffolk," Miss Marie Bontface; "Le Sieur de Boissy," Miss Katie Putnam; "Tete de Veau, High Constable of Calais," Mr. Ashley; "Von Schlacker," Mr. J. H. Burnett; "Von Kra-cher," Mr. H. A. Wentworth: "Von Smascher," Mr. G. Richards; "Block," Mr. J. Johnston; "Queen Catharine," Mrs. A. D. Bradley; "Lady Constance de Grey," Miss Fanuie Stockton; and "Anne Boleyn," Miss Georgie Telbin.

Mrs. Oates we have heard good reports of as a very pleasing and attractive actress, and report has not belied her. She is far superior to Lady Don, of whom she somewhat reminds us. both as an actress and as a singer. She performed the part of "Earl Darnley" in excellent burlesque style, and it a streak of good luck should at this juncture happen to come to the unhappy fortunes of the Chesnut, and The Fie'd of the Cloth of Gold have a run of an indefinite number of weeks, she will become a great favorite as will also Miss Putnam, who took the part of "Le Sieur de Boissy," the French master of ceremonies, Mr. J. G. Burnett gave a capital personation of "Bluff King Hall," and Mr. Fiske was very nearly, if not quite, as good in the part of "Francis 1." This gentleman, among other vocal efforts, gave the song of the "Ten Little Injuns" in a manner peculiar to himself. We were unable to decide at first whether he meant to be funny or whether he was funny in spite of himself. Other evidences of genuine comic ability, however, indicated that the fun was legitimate. Mr. Bradley's "Queen Catharine" was somewhat a la Lingard "Walking down Broadway," and was not quite equal to the best efforts in the same line of that gentleman, although sufficiently amusing. Miss Pannie Stockton has appeared here several times before, both in legitimate opera and in burlesque. She has a well-trained voice of fine quality, and is an actress of considerable ability. Mr. C. A. McManus, who sustained the character of "Sir Guy the Cripple"-somewhat modelled after that of "Herzog," in the Black Crook-is a capable actor, who is well known and appreciated here as a member of the Chesnut Street Theatre company of last season. The other actors acquitted themselves satisfactorily.

A burlesque is a sort of variety entertainment, and it is probably legitimate to introduce a little of everything, to give the audience the worth of their money. Consequently, last evening the performance was diversified by the remarkable gymnastic feats of the Leon Brothers on the trapeze, the Breban bell-ringers, seconded by a comical quartette of cow-bell ringers, Hernandez, the pantomimist and guitarist, Girard, the ernithological and zoological imitator, and an imitation Japanese troupe. All of these performers were good, and no one present could complain that there was not enough pork for a

READING, Pa .- DR. WISHART-Dear Sir: -- 1 have been cured, as I believe, of Consumption, by the use of your Pine Tree Tar Cordial, and t was so very low, and had been sick so long when I commenced to use it, that I had but little confidence in anything. I had tried many of the advertised medicines, as well as the prescriptions of several eminent physi-

My symptoms were a dry, hacking cough. which I had had for several years, with night swests and frequent severe bleeding of the lungs. I was so very weak that I could attend to no business, and had pain almost constantly through my breast and shoulders. About four years ago my brother, who resides in Philadelphia, told me he believed your medicine would cure me, and I commenced its use. I was aware that my disease had gone so far that I could not expect to be cured in a lew days; but in a short time I felt much letter-so much so that I was able to attend to my business; and, after continuing its use for several months, I recovered my health and strength perfectly.

I am convinced that this is not a mere transient relief, but a complete and permanent cure, as I have been gradually growing stronger ever since, and I attribute it solely to your Pine Tree Tar Cordial, for I know that I must have gone to my grave years ago, it I had not used your great medicine. I would say to those who are similarly afflicted, especially in cases like mine, where the disease has run for a long time, that although one bottle wil relieve, it will not effect a cure; but by perse vering in its use, I believe it will restore you to health, it you are not beyond the power MRS. BYSPEPSIA! DYSPEPSIA!

No. 658 Penn street, Reading, Ps.

DE. WISHART:-I have been a constant sufferer with dyspepsia for the last eighteen years, during which time I cannot say I ever enjoyed a perfectly well day. There were times when the symptoms were more aggravated than at others, and then it seemed it would be a great relief to die. I had at all times an unpleasant feeling in my head, but latterly my sufferings so much increased that I became almost unit for business of any kind; my mind was continually filled with gloomy thoughts and forebodings, and if I attempted to change their current by reading, at once a sensation of icy coldness, in connection with a dead weight, as it were, rested upon my brain; also a feeling of sickness would occur at the stomach, and great pain in my eyes, accompanied with which was the continual fear of losibg my reason. I also experienced great lassitude, debility, and nervousness, which made it difficult to walk by day or sleep by night. I became averse to society, and disposed only to seclusion, and having tried the skill of a number of eminent physicians of various schools, finally came to the conclusion that for the disease at my present age (forty-five years) there was no cure in existence. But, through the interference of Divine Providence, to whom I devoutly offer my thanks. I at last found a sovereign remedy in your Dyspepsia Pills and Tar Cordial, which seem to have effectually removed almost the last trace of my long list of ailments and bad feelings, and in their place health, pleasure, and contentment are my every-day companions.
